PREFACE.

THIS Album is a new publication intended primarily for students, to give them a memento of Harvard and a better acquaintance with the teachers of the University. The book, it is hoped, will commend itself as well to Graduates and Professors.

As to the contents. It has not been our aim to include the entire teaching force of the University. The large body of Assistants has been omitted; also some entire departments, such as the Medical and Dental Schools. Portraits of the Rev. Henry Van Dyke, of Prof. Whitney the Geologist, and some four or five Instructors, were not received in time for insertion. With these last exceptions the work as planned is complete.

Many favors have been extended to us. We are indebted to Miss Cary and Mr. Horace E. Scudder for the excellent likeness of Louis Agassiz; to Prof. Charles Eliot Norton and Mr. Bolles for their kind assistance; and finally to the students and Professors at large for their cordial coöperation.
